9. Your Choices Regarding our “Sale” or “Sharing” of Your Personal Information

“Sale” of Your Personal Information

You have the right to direct us to not sell your Personal Information for monetary or other valuable consideration at any time (the “right to opt-out”). Consumers who opt-in to Personal Information sales may opt-out of future sales at any time.

“Sharing” of Your Personal Information

You have the right to direct us to not share your Personal Information for the purposes of cross-context behavioral advertising, which is showing advertising on other websites or other media based on your browsing history with our Websites (the “right to opt-out”). Consumers who opt-in to our sharing of Personal Information for these purposes may opt-out of future such sharing at any time.

How You May Opt-Out of Our Sale or Sharing of Your Personal Information

To exercise the right to opt-out of the “sale” of your Personal Information for monetary or other valuable consideration and of “sharing” your Personal Information for the purposes of cross-context behavioral advertising, you (or your authorized representative) may adjust your cookie preferences by visiting the Website and clicking the Do Not Sell or Share My Personal Information link at the footer of the Website.

Once you make an opt-out request, we will wait at least twelve (12) months before asking you to reauthorize Personal Information sales. However, you may change your mind and opt back into the sale of Personal Information at any time by visiting the Website and clicking the Do Not Sell or Share My Personal Information link at the footer of the Website.

You do not need to create an account with us to exercise your opt-out rights. You may be required to provide us with additional contact information so that we may verify your request to opt-in to the sale of your Personal Information. We will only use Personal Information provided in an opt-out request to review and comply with the request.

If you (or your Authorized Agent) submit a request to opt-in to our “sale” or “sharing” of your Personal Information, we will use a two-step process in order to confirm that you want to opt-in for such “sale” or “sharing” of your Personal Information. This process may include verifying your request through your email address on record, calling you on your phone number on record (which may be through the use of an automated dialer), sending you a text message and requesting that you text us a confirmation (which may be through the use of an automated dialer), and/or sending you a confirmation through US mail. By making a Consumer Request, you consent to us contacting you in one or more of these ways.

Browser Privacy Control Signals

You may also exercise your right to opt-out of the “sale” of your Personal Information for monetary or other valuable consideration and “sharing” your Personal Information for the purposes of cross-context behavioral advertising by setting the privacy control signal on your browser, if your browser supports it. We currently recognize and support the following privacy signals sent by browsers:

- Global privacy control (for more information on how to configure your browser to send this signal, please see <https://globalprivacycontrol.org/>).

When we receive one of these privacy control signals, we will opt you out of any further “sales” or “sharing” of your Personal Information when you interact with our Websites through that browser and on that device. We will only be able to propagate your choice to opt-out to your account if you are currently logged in when we receive the privacy control signal from your browser. When we are able to propagate your choice to your account, you will be opted out of “sale” or “sharing” of your Personal Information on all browsers and devices on which you are logged in, and for both online and offline “sales” and “sharing.” In the event you have affirmatively opted-in to our “sale” and “sharing” of your Personal Information as described above and we receive a privacy control signal from your browser, we will request further instructions from you before you are opted out of any further “sale” or “sharing.”

When we receive a privacy control signal, we may also process it in a frictionless manner, which prohibits us from: (a) charging you a fee or requiring any valuable consideration; or (b) changing your experience with our products and services. You may configure the privacy control signal to operate in a frictionless manner by consulting the documentation for your browser or plug-in that provides the privacy control signal. If your privacy control signal conflicts with any settings in your account, we will comply with the privacy control signal and not “sell” or “share” your personal information.
